COVERAGE

The Studio Residency Stipend includes place of residence, workspace and meals. Travel costs will be covered. A separate request can be made for an additional subsidy for living costs of up to CHF 500. Each recipient of a studio grant will receive a Half-Fare travelcard for the public traffic in Switzerland.

CRITERIA

Applicants must submit a statement specifying their specific interests and describing their motivation in seeking a residency. The Bibliothek Andreas Züst is especially seeking projects that deal with the library as a whole or one of its sub-areas. The Studio Residency Stipend program is to be considered in the tradition of libraries as places of knowledge in the sense of diversity.

Application for the Studio Residency Stipend is open to national and international cultural workers (individuals or teams of up to a maximum of four persons) across disciplines who have an entry permit for Switzerland. Applications from families (compatibility of art and family, art and children) are welcome.

APPLICATION

Next Residency: 30 September - 25 October 2024
Application deadlines: 3 April - 12 May 2024

Only complete and correct applications will be considered.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF SELECTION RESULTS

The stipends are awarded by an external Jury and representatives of the Bibliothek Andreas Züst. The jury's acceptances/rejections will be made by 9 June 2024. The decision of the jury is not an appraisal of quality and there will be no explanation of the outcome.

JOURNAL

At the end of the Residency we would like to see a documentation of the stay/the project, including visual material for the journal on the website Bibliothek Andreas Züst.

ACCOMMODATION STUDIO

For the stipendiaries, the Alpenhof will provide for accommodations. The Alpenhof is an inspiring location for a retreat and working, with opportunities for exchange, enjoyment and relaxation. The house is open to guests from far and wide, as well as all kinds of encounters. Depending on the bookings, the Alpenhof can be either busily lively or peacefully quiet. For each recipient of a studio grant, there is a private bedroom available with an individual area for working.
